

1
2
3
4 CARLOS AMAYA,

5 Plaintiff,

6 v.

7 ALAMEDA COUNTY SHERIFF
8 DEPUTY POSEDEL,

9 Defendant.

10 Case No. 16-cv-01304-SK

11 REFERRAL FOR REASSIGNMENT
12 AND REPORT AND
13 RECOMMENDATION TO DISMISS

14 Regarding Docket No. 8

15 Plaintiff Carlos Amaya, through his counsel, failed to submit an adequate application to 16 proceed in forma pauperis (an “IFP”) or pay the filing fee for his Complaint. Since Plaintiff has 17 not consented to the jurisdiction of the magistrate under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) the Court does not have authority to make a dispositive ruling in this case. Accordingly, the Court orders that this case be REASSIGNED to a District Judge.

18 Plaintiff was provided with notice on two occasions that the Court would consider a new
19 IFP. Plaintiff was also advised that without a new IFP, he should pay the filing fee or risk
20 dismissal of his Complaint. Given that Plaintiff has neither filed a new IFP nor paid the filing fee,
21 the Court RECOMMENDS that the District Court DISMISS this action without prejudice.

22 BACKGROUND

23 Through his counsel, Plaintiff Carlos Amaya, a detainee at the Alameda County Jail (Dkt
24 1, ¶ 4), filed a Complaint for violation of 42 USC § 1983 on March 16, 2016 for an alleged injury
25 sustained from an Alameda County Sheriff’s Deputy. (Dkt. 1.) Plaintiff simultaneously submitted
26 an IFP. (Dkt. 2.) On March 21, 2016, this Court denied the IFP without prejudice on the grounds
27 that: (1) the applicant did not sign his application or provide documentation to support that the 28 party signing the application had power or attorney to do so in his stead; and (2) the applicant did

1 not provide the financial information required in an IFP. (Dkt. 6.) However, the Court specified
2 that it “is willing to consider a new application meeting these two obligations.” (Id.)

3 Having received nothing from Plaintiff by April 6, 2016, the Court issued a further Order
4 stating that it was “unclear to the Court whether or not the Plaintiff intends to pursue his claim
5 because Plaintiff has neither submitted a new application nor paid the required filing fee.” (Dkt.
6 8.) Therefore, Plaintiff was ordered to pay the filing fee or submit a new IFP no later than April 7 20, 2016 or face dismissal of the claim without prejudice. (Id.) Plaintiff has done neither.

8 ANALYSIS

9 According to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, a Court may authorize a person to commence an action
10 without prepayment of fees or provision of security where the person is a prisoner “who submits
11 an affidavit that includes a statement of all assets such prisoner possesses” which establishes “that 12 the person is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). In 13 addition to the affidavit, the prisoner “shall submit a certified copy of the trust fund account
14 statement or institutional equivalent for the prisoner for the 6-month period immediately preceding
15 the filing of the complaint or notice of appeal....” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). “[A] § 1915 affidavit
16 must state facts ‘with some particularity, definiteness and certainty’ as to indigency.” Wells v.
17 Acosta, 609 Fed.Appx. 430, 431 (9th Cir. 2015) (citing Escobedo v. Applebees, 787 F.3d 1226 18 1233, (9th Cir. 2015)).

19 In the present matter, a form affidavit (AO240 - Application to Proceed in District Court
20 Without Prepaying Fees or Costs) signed by Flora Sanchez, with the notation “power of attorney”
21 next to her signature, was filed by Mr. Amaya’s counsel on his behalf. (Dkt. 2, pg. 2.) No
22 documentation was provided confirming that Ms. Sanchez has authority to act pursuant to power
23 or attorney or otherwise explaining her relationship to Mr. Amaya.

24 As to the content, there was little information regarding Mr. Amaya’s financial status. The 25 first page was left blank, other than to indicate that Mr. Amaya is being held at the Federal 26 Correctional Institution in Sanford, Arizona. A “0” was provided as to funds in the check or 27 savings account and “N/A” as to all other questions. Further, the required certified copy of Mr.
28 Amaya’s trust fund account statement was not provided. In light of the foregoing, the Court had

1 no choice but to deny the application.

2 Despite the opportunity to rectify the IFP or pay the filing fee, Mr. Amaya did not do so.
3 Once the application is denied, a party should be afforded a “reasonable time after a denial of an
4 IFP application to pay the fee.” Wells v. Acosta, 609 Fed.Appx. at 431 (emphasis added). Here,
5 the Court provided Mr. Amaya with thirty days (from March 21, 2016 until April 20, 2016) and
6 two notifications (Dkts. 6 and 8) to either file a new IFP or pay the filing fee. As of the date of 7 this Order, thirty-five days after the initial denial, Mr. Amaya has done neither.

8 CONCLUSION

9 Given that an incomplete affidavit signed by an unknown party was submitted on behalf of 10 Mr. Amaya in support of his IFP and that despite having receiving two notices from the Court
11 suggesting that he remedy the IFP, he has failed to submit a new IFP or submit a filing fee within
12 the past thirty-five days, the Court HERBY RECOMMENDS that this action be DISMISSED
13 without prejudice. Any party may object to this recommendation within fourteen days of the 14 filing date of this order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b).

15 IT IS SO ORDERED.

16 Dated: April 25, 2016

17
18 SALLIE KIM
United States Magistrate Judge